I know... I have 'then' and 'than'!

I stopped changing 'data was'... more people THAN not use it as the singular – I just plain gave up!

Good catch, this one and "data was" is something I always need to double check as my brain seems to mix them up.

The changes look good to me, except I think it should be 'taxa' (the plural) and not 'taxon' in the edited sections:

Wendy cleared this. OPA said it can go on Monday. Note I changed the last paragraph to reflect the FRN. You'll need to fill in the length of the comment period.

Wendy wants background Qs and As on what each BE says. Just a short paragraph or two for each one should be fine. Can you get those to me by COB tomorrow?

Where are we on the web? Are the documents loaded and ready to go? Do you have test pages?

Finally, Angela has the FRN for this.
